Features

Kästenbergstraße 22 • 67661 Kaiserslautern

- Offered is a single-family house of sandstone, built in 1927, on two floors, with a basement at ground level.
- In 2021 to date, a complete renovation of the house, garage, and exterior, including drainage, has been carried out.
- The property covers approximately 383 square meters and is 360° fenced, with an electric 2-wing gate and a covered storage area for wood.
- The highlight of the property is the outdoor pool heated by a heat pump with a salt electrolysis system, which can be completely covered with an extendable patio of about 25 square meters made of very resilient Robinia wood, and the infrared sauna in the garage.
- The patio is easily accessible via the south/east-facing conservatory or the ground-level basement.
- The house has a living area of about 135 square meters, which is divided into 4 rooms, an open kitchen, a bathroom, and hallways.
- The square meters of the courtyard and the winter garden was included in the living area at 25% and 50% respectively.
- The trapezoidal dormer on the upper floor creates more living space in 2 sleeping areas.
- Further comfort is provided by the 2 air conditioning units installed, which can provide both cold and heat depending on the season.
- In addition, the attic offers potential for expansion and can be converted into approximately 45 square meters of additional living space.
- A built-in kitchen with a kitchen island and high-quality electrical appliances from Miele and Bosch are already included in the purchase price.
- The daylight bathroom is equipped with a whirlpool, a floor-to-ceiling shower, and a double sink.
- In addition, there is a guest toilet in the house and a walk-in shower, and another toilet in the basement.
- The floors are fitted with vinyl and tiles, the plastic windows are triple glazed, thermally insulated, and have electric blinds, duets, and removable insect screens.
- A gas central heating system provides the heat. In addition, the 6 KW concrete stove in the living room provides a great ambience.
- For vehicles, there is an electric garage and two parking spaces in the yard.
- The ground-level basement has a laundry/heating room with shower and toilet and a large basement room with about 1.90 m ceiling height.
- The house is currently occupied by the owner and is available by arrangement.
- More pictures of the property as well as 3-D pictures of the outdoor pool gladly on request.
