Location

Neustraße 1 • 67659 Kaiserslautern-Morlautern

Morlautern is a district of Kaiserslautern in Rhineland-Palatinate. The area is characterized by its quiet streets and family-friendly atmosphere. Nearby, numerous green spaces and forest areas offer excellent opportunities for outdoor recreational activities.

The district also has a well-developed infrastructure with various shopping options, restaurants, and cafes that are easily accessible.

Educational facilities such as primary schools are well-represented, as are kindergartens and daycare centers, providing comprehensive childcare options.

Public Transport Connections

The highway connection is also favorable. The A6 runs nearby, allowing quick access to cities like Mannheim and Saarbrücken. Additionally, the A63 is not far, offering a direct link to Mainz.

Public transport is mainly provided by several bus lines that regularly run through the district. Well-developed bike paths allow for eco-friendly commuting within the district and to the city center.

The main train station of Kaiserslautern is nearby, with numerous regional and long-distance trains departing from there.
